We are a multi-generation industrial equipment and real estate firm

San Francisco- Our home for more than 60 years

What Sets Us Apart?

Decades of Experience and Financial Strength

In business for over 60 years, Rabin Worldwide is a family-held industrial auction and real estate investment company, with a focus on the acquisition and sale of industrial equipment and facilities around the world. Rabin has sold equipment assets in virtually every industrial sector and on almost every continent. We can purchase complete factories, including real estate, and conduct auctions of any size on behalf of our clients. With a unique combination of financial strength, diversified experience and unparalleled professional expertise, Rabin has the experience and flexibility to take on a deal of any size and complexity.

Real World Valuation

Accurate valuation is an essential starting point for any lending or disposition process. Every year, Rabin valuation and appraisal services assist dozens of companies in obtaining working capital by valuing assets promised as collateral to asset-based lenders and investors.

Rabin's valuation and appraisal services are independent! We base our appraisals and values on our direct experience and actual sales history in the market providing our clients guaranteed valuations they can take to the bank.

Execution & Performance

We execute our sales utilizing hands-on philosophy and attention to detail executed by our proven management team with its unparalleled domain expertise. Our systems are designed to begin promoting sales the moment the deal is confirmed. Our marketing is customized for each sale and combines a powerful and cost-effective mix of advanced media methods- online ad buys, social networking sites, mass emails, display ads, direct mail and more. Beyond media promotions, we directly reach out to our closest industry contacts and personally invite them to participate.

Our Services

Auctions & Liquidations

As specialists in the industrial marketplace, we've spent years developing relationships with the people who buy industrial machinery and equipment around the world. Auction buyers respect our knowledge and the fact that our auctioneers, appraisers and project managers are all seasoned experts.

Our extensive buyer database enables us to target buyers on both a product type and a geographic basis.

Appraisals

Accurate valuation is an essential starting point. We base our valuations on our actual sales in the market, and we deliver asset values banks and corporations rely on.

Our appraisal team has been working together for more than 25 years - gaining extensive experience in nearly every facet of industrial equipment.

Turnkey Opportunities

We provide turnkey sales throughout North America and actively market and sell a company in its entirety, including equipment, inventory, intellectual property, customers, and often the attached real estate.

Our proven ability to navigate through all the aspects of complex sales processes offers our clients a compelling one-stop-shop value proposition. This allows Rabin to go to market utilizing flexible and staged strategies from marketing sales of turnkey operations of complete facilities to an auction sale if necessary.

Partnerships & Financing

We partner with companies all over the world to finance and purchase large equipment inventories, plants and real estate.

Network of partners across the world gives us validation in international markets and extends our buyer network for added value for our clients.
